

Position: Landfill Gas Wellfield Technician
Location: Brea, California, United States
Reporting to: Regional Supervisor

---

The Wellfield Technician will work as a member of a small multi-skilled team to maintain the landfill gas wells and infrastructure associated with the landfills are in working order, while following sound engineering practices.

What We Offer

- Medical, dental & vision insurance - no waiting period
- Annual HSA company contributions
- Company paid basic life insurance, short-term and long-term disability coverage
- 401k program with company match
- Paid holidays (12), sick time, paid time off, charity paid time off

Responsibilities

- Maintain compliance and overall health and safety of oneself and other personnel, the environment and equipment in the landfill gas well field and supporting infrastructure
- Maintain the wellfield with contractual requirements of the Gas Rights Agreement (GRA) and the New Source Performance Standard (NSPS) regulatory compliance requirements
- Optimize the operational performance of the overall well field to help ensure that the gas required to meet the budgeted generation targets is available
- Highlight and report areas of concern to management and the Landfill Operator
- Capable of functionally utilizing data recording and storage devices as they relate to well tuning and downloading of well data
- Import and review monitoring data and take appropriate corrective actions to address deficiencies reported on within the data base
- Assist in well field system shutdowns, be available and respond callouts that may occur outside of normal work shift hours and other related duties as directed by supervision
- Maintain minor remediation, repairs well head and hose exchanges, well tuning and inspections
- Interface and coordinate with Landfill Operator on planned and unplanned maintenance (outside and inside) the scope of the GRA
- Oversee work undertaken by contractors when required
- Communicate effectively with all staff and encourage positive dialogue between team members.
- Take ownership of the gas field with focus on achieving the gas field KPI's
- Ensure health and safety of themselves and of others through understanding and implementing their workplace health and safety obligations – being a role model for health and safety

Qualifications

- High School Diploma or GED.
- Basic math, verbal and writing communication skills
- Able to compile and analyse data and undertake dynamic Risk Assessments as required
- Work collaboratively as part of a team and individually to achieve set objectives
- Computer skills including MS Word and Excel, download mobile handheld equipment and data loggers
- Mechanical aptitude and experience to make repairs and adjustments in duties noted above
- Work based experience in appropriate technical discipline
- Willing to work overtime, be on call for emergencies and work flexible work hours from time to time
- Enthusiastic and self-motivated
- Hazardous Area training or experience (preferred)
- Oil, gas, or power station experience (preferred)
- Landfill Gas infrastructure maintenance or construction (preferred)
- Confined Space qualifications (preferred)

Physical Requirements

- Able to and for extended times be capable of working outdoors and in inclement weather
- Able to and for extended times be capable of sitting, standing, walking, reading technical documents and looking at computer monitors
- Exposure/proximity to loud noise, odorous spaces, dangerous gas and other potential hazards requiring appropriate personal protective equipment, training and adherence to safety programs and practices
- Lift and carry up to 50 pounds
- Climb vertical access ladders and stairwells
- See and distinguish the various colors of the light spectrum.
- Must be able to wear a respirator and various required personal protective equipment required for safely working with various materials, climates and conditions

EDL is an Equality Opportunity Employer